Dear Daniel J. Dudyck,

Thank you for your passion for Star Wars: The Clone Wars, and taking the time to write us.

What fans think of Star Wars is extremely important to everyone at Lucasfilm. It is incredible how deeply the show connected with fans around the world and we are so proud of Dave Filoni and the Lucasfilm Animation team for creating such an amazing series.

After five critically acclaimed seasons of The Clone Wars, we felt the time was right to wind down production. As we enter into an exciting new era focused on the next Star Wars feature films, we have also decided to pursue a new direction in animated programming.

I'm pleased to share that Dave Filoni and many members of his Clone Wars team are already hard at work developing a new Star Wars animated series set in a time period previously untouched in Star Wars films or television programming. I'm hoping we will have more details to share with all of our fans soon.

Please know how much we appreciate your support. Keep an eye on StarWars.com to be the first to know about new developments on all our projects.

Sincerely,
